

BIO

Pair of Harts is a dynamic musical duo blending the sophistication of jazz with the passion of classical, Latin, R&B, pop, and contemporary styles. Known for their rich arrangements and emotionally charged performances, they create an immersive musical experience that connects with audiences of every background.

Bill Hart – Guitar

Guitarist, composer, and two-time Grammy nominee Bill Hart brings decades of artistic mastery to the duo. With six studio albums, international performances, and the acclaimed instructional book Solo Jazz Guitar (Hal Leonard), Bill is widely recognized as a leading voice in modern jazz fusion. A Los Angeles Musicians Institute honors graduate, his melodic phrasing and genre-crossing style define the sonic foundation of Pair of Harts.

Lisa McDowell – Vocals

Classically trained vocalist Lisa McDowell captivates listeners with her rare four-octave range and versatile artistry. Mentored by the renowned Madame Joy Davidson, Lisa has performed for governors and presidential candidates, appeared on national broadcasts, and headlined with the National Symphony Orchestra of the Dominican Republic. A Top-5 state finalist in the Miss America competition and former lead vocalist and bandleader of Atlanta's 12-piece US Beat, she brings both power and elegance to every performance.

Together

United onstage and in vision, Pair of Harts crafts performances that are vibrant, soulful, and unforgettable. Their seamless blend of genres, exceptional musical chemistry, and commitment to artistic excellence make them a standout act for concert venues, festivals, corporate events, and private performances.
